

After the Supreme Court's Dobbs Ruling:
Legal and Regulatory Implications that Physicians Need to Understand
September 1, 2022 | 1:00 pm ET

| | | |
|-------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1:00 pm – 1:05 pm | Deborah Winegard, JD ASMAC Program Committee Chair Of Counsel, Whatley Kallas | Introductions |
| 1:05 pm – 1:30 pm | Annalia Michelman, JD Senior Legislative Attorney American Medical Association | Overview: The implications, impact and legal issues arising from the Supreme Court's ruling. |
| 1:30 pm – 1:55 pm | Lisa Matsubara, JD General Counsel Planned Parenthood Affiliates of California | New Issues & Risks: Compliance risks, regulatory and criminal, extradition, telehealth, and risk mitigation strategies. |
| 1:55 pm – 2:15 pm | Bethany Sherrer, JD, MBA, MPH Dir of Government Relations & GC Medical Association of Georgia | Perspectives from a state with limited reproductive medical care – the law, exemptions and legal issues that are unclear. |
| 2:15 pm – 2:35 pm | Leda Anderson, JD Director, Advocacy and Government Relations Massachusetts Medical Society | Perspectives from a state where reproductive care that has not been restricted following the Dobbs ruling |
| 2:35 pm – 2:55 pm | Questions and Group Discussion | The Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization Supreme Court ruling leaves considerable legal, policy, and regulatory uncertainty. This part of the program is devoted to discussing the issues, risks, and protections that physicians in all states need to be aware of. |
| 2:55 pm – 3:00 pm | Panelists' Closing Remarks | |